GRAND ICELAND & WESTERN FRANCE

DISCOVER THE
DRAMATIC LANDSCAPES
OF ICELAND, THEN SAIL SOUTH TO SEE PARIS BEFORE
ENJOYING A TWO-NIGHT HOTEL STAY IN LISBON AND MORE

32-DAY GRAND VOYAGE FROM $15,395 PER PERSON

Experience Iceland and Celtic Europe as you cruise from London to Lisbon via the unique island nation of Iceland on the edge of the Arctic Circle. Visit the small volcanic island of Heimaey in the remote Westman archipelago, followed by Iceland's cosmopolitan capital.

Sail to the port of Isafjordur to visit one of the last great wildernesses in Europe. Explore the magnificent green pastures, waterfalls and bubbling mud-pots of Akureyri. Call at the charming harbour of Husavik, which is surrounded by snow-covered mountains and full of colourful houses, for a whale-watching boat ride. You will also visit Scottish castles, Viking settlements and the remote Shetland Islands.

As the ship heads south, the climate changes and you will enjoy a spectacular cruise along the River Seine to Rouen in France, for a chance to enjoy a wonderful day in Paris. Then overnight in the Bordeaux region and indulge in some wine tasting, before marvelling at the Spanish cathedral at Santiago de Compostela and spending two nights in the Portuguese capital of Lisbon.
